

Reinstatement After Retirement Information

You may voluntarily end your retirement and reinstate to active membership at any time after your retirement effective date by submitting this form to CalSTRS.

CalSTRS strongly recommends that you contact us before you reinstate to discuss the impact this decision will have on your future retirement benefits. Here are some factors to consider before you return to CalSTRS-covered employment:

1. You cannot retire again until one full calendar year has elapsed from the date of reinstatement.
2. If you elected an unmodified benefit when you retired, you are not eligible to file a Pre-Retirement Election of an Option form until one calendar year has elapsed from the date of reinstatement.
3. If you elected an option when you retired, the option in effect during your retirement will be treated as a pre-retirement option based on the effective date of the retirement. If your death occurs after reinstatement and before a subsequent retirement, the beneficiary will be covered under that option.
4. Until you have earned one year of service credit after your reinstatement:
 - You will not be eligible for a disability allowance or disability retirement
 - Survivor benefits or a family allowance will not be payable upon your death
5. Any benefits payable because of participation in the Retirement Incentive Program will be terminated.
6. If you are in Coverage A, upon returning to CalSTRS-covered employment you will be enrolled under Coverage B.
7. Please notify your employer that you are no longer retired.

SUBSEQUENT RETIREMENT

FEWER THAN TWO YEARS SERVICE CREDIT

If you retire for service, reinstate to membership and then retire again with fewer than two years of service credit, your new monthly benefit will be equal to sum of:

1. An amount equal to the last benefit you received before reinstatement, increased by the 2 percent Annual Benefit Adjustment that would have been applied to the benefit if you had not reinstated.

PLUS

2. An amount based on the service credit you earned since your last reinstatement, your age at the subsequent retirement and your final compensation.

TWO YEARS OR MORE SERVICE CREDIT

If you retire for service with two or more years of service credit after your most recent reinstatement, your monthly benefit will be equal to the sum of:

1. An amount based on the service credit you had earned prior to the last retirement, times an adjusted age factor, times your highest final compensation.

PLUS

2. An amount based on the service credit you earned since your last reinstatement, your age at the subsequent retirement and your highest final compensation.

If you earn an additional two years of service credit after your reinstatement, you may qualify for benefit enhancements such as one-year final compensation or up to $400 a month longevity bonus.

Service credit from the Retirement Incentive Program or the purchase of nonqualified service credit cannot be used to qualify for benefit enhancements. However, beginning January 1, 2005, up to two-tenths of one year of unused sick leave can count towards being eligible for the enhancements described above.
