

RESOLUTION
OF THE
TEACHERS' RETIREMENT BOARD

SUBJECT: Adoption of an Additional Earnings Credit for the Defined Benefit Supplement Program based on the June 30, 2023 Actuarial Valuation

RESOLUTION NO. XX-XX

WHEREAS, section 25006 of the Education Code allows the Teachers' Retirement Board to declare an Additional Earnings Credit; and

WHEREAS, the Teachers' Retirement Board adopted a policy to grant an Additional Earnings Credit using a two-step allocation process when the ratio of the market value of assets to liabilities exceeds certain thresholds; and

WHEREAS, section 22311.5 of the Education Code requires the California State Teachers' Retirement System (CalSTRS) to conduct an annual actuarial valuation of the Defined Benefit Supplement Program; and

WHEREAS, Milliman, CalSTRS consulting actuary, has performed a valuation using the June 30, 2023 data provided by CalSTRS which shows the ratio of the market value of assets to liabilities exceeds the policy thresholds resulting in an additional earnings credit of 4.91% under the first allocation step and 0.90% under the second allocation step, for a total additional earnings credit of 5.81%; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Teachers' Retirement Board declares an Additional Earnings Credit of 5.81% of the June 30, 2023, balance of credits for members of the Defined Benefit Supplement Program who have not retired as of May 2, 2024.
